THE RIGHT JEANS FOR YOUR SHAPE AND SIZE

Find a Store That Caters to You
20/20

There are boutiques popping up across the country that cater specifically to women looking for that perfect denim fit and one such hot shopping spot is True Boutique in New York City. You can have your jeans tailored for free by a professional in house tailor on site. “Whether you are a willowy size 0 or a curvy size 18, every woman can benefit from wearing garments that truly fit and therefore flatter her figure,” says boutique owner Katie Campbell.
